

Amendments to the Abstract:

ABSTRACT

Profiled steel decking comprises a steel sheet roll formed to define at least two crests and a trough separated by inclined webs. The boundaries between the webs and the crests are radiussed to define corners each having a smooth curvilinear profile.